

JULIA CUTLER IS AFFINITY FOUND BY ARTIST EARLE

Neighbors in Monroe Declare She and 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 Her Brother Are Weil Known Among the Socialists of This City.

To an Evening World reporter this afternoon Frederick Pinney Earle, artist, poet, $ocialist, millionaire, vegetarian, recluse and eccentric, expounded his new doctrine of the Freedom of Love.

In the case of Frederick Pinney Earle freedom of Love means put ting aside his wife and child so that he may marry his newly-discovered soul's affinity, meaning by that a certain stout young woman from the Dutch settlements of Pennsylvania.

It is doubtful if there ever was a more remarkable interview than Mr. Earle's interview or a more remarkable story out of real life than this story of which he is the central figure.

Startling Story Follows Recovery of Body of Moxie Schonburg, One of the Men Accused of Taking $7,200 From Peter Worth.

That Moxie Schonburg, one of the men whom Peter Worth, bookmaker, accused of having taken a roll of money amounting to $7,200 Hudson River by his confederates last Sunday and murdered is the opinion of Inspector McCanerty to-day.

Schonburg's body came ashore at one of the Edgewater landings to-day. There were no marks to indicate violence.
